Obituary

Lovie Mae Clark was born on September 6, 1924 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green in Birmingham, Alabama.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Magnolia A.M.E. Church under the leadership of the Reverend Henry McSpaddle. Later she joined the Bethel A.M.E. Church of Buffalo, New York, and became an active member as a Women's Day Captain; served on the committee for the One Hundred Fiftieth Church Anniversary. She was also appointed a Junior Steward under the Reverend James K. Baldwin, and was a faithful servant.

A teacher by profession, she received her B.S. degree from Alabama State University and M.S. degree from Buffalo State College. Prior to moving to Buffalo, New York she taught in the Jefferson County Schools in Birmingham, Alabama. She was a special education teacher in the Buffalo School System for sixteen years.

She departed this life Tuesday, February 9, 1982 at Lafayette General Hospital, Buffalo, New York

Lovie Mae Clark leaves to cherish her memmory; a loving daughter and son: the Reverend Mrs. Catherine Kirk and Julius C. Clark Jr.; a son -in- law; three grandchildren, five sisters, one aunt, three brothers -in-law, nieces, nephews, and a number of cousins and friends.

Daughter's Prayer

*Dear God, even though our mother's loving
Care will be greatly missed
By my brother and myself,
Please tell her not to worry about us like
Her, we too are in your care and protection now.
Keep reminding her that we will be alright so that
She may find rest, peace and comfort in Thee.*

*Thank You, Lord
Amen*
