THE OBITUARY

Teresa Ellen boone was born on December 21, in Calhoun Falls, South carolina. She was the daughter of John Bass and the late Ellen Gary Bass. She silently slipped away on May 21, 1984 in the Buffalo General Hospital.

Teresa came to Buffalo as an infant and was educated in the Buffalo Public School System.

Her entire life was spent in Bethel A.M.E. Church. She was a member of the Junior Usher Board, Usher-board No. 2, and when she passed, was a member of the Hospitality Board.

She was employed for twenty years at the West Seneca Developmental Center. She held various titles while there. She worked with the clients there from 1970-1973. In 1973-1982 she worked in the office as a clerk. In 1983 to the present time, she worked as Community Resident Aide.

She attended Buffalo State College and Erie Community College (South Campus), in 1975 and received certificates for courses dealing with psychology to enhance her knowledge in her profession. She also received certificates for courses taken dealing with her work from Medaille College in 1977.

Teresa Ellen Boone leaves to mourn her passing, a loving husband: Robert; two sons: Derrick R. and Rodney J.; her father: John Bass; mother-in-law: Sophie Boone; brother: General G. Bass; three sisters: Clydean B., Amaker, Beatrice Stenson and Isabelle Atchison; three

... Family Acknowledgement ...

The family wishes to thank the Church, friends and neighbors for the many prayers, beautiful flowers, cards of comfort and telegrams of sympathy.

Your acts of kindness and thoughtfulness helped to give us strength in our hour of bereavement.
