OBITUARY

Charles Kenneth Clinton was born on October 3, 1915 in Wilmington, North Carolina. He was the first of two children born to the parentage of Joseph and Corine Bony Clinton.

Charles received Christ at an early age and became a member of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. He came to Buffalo, New York at the age of seven. He united with Bethel under the pastorate of the late Rev. D.O. Walker. He served for a number of years as Sunday School teacher and a Boy Scout Master. He was appointed honorary Steward by the Reverend Eugene E. McAshan in 1982.

Charles Clinton worked 15 years for the Ford Motor Company; he worked 22 years for the United States Postal service where he retired on January 8, 1981. He served in the United States Army for three years during World War II. He was a member of the Grand Order of Odd Fellows, and a member of the Bennett Wells Post of American Legion.

Charles' first marriage was to Anna Robertson; one child was born. His second marriage was to Dorothy Monroe; two children were born.

Charles Kenneth Clinton passed away on January 12, 1987. He leaves to mourn his departing, a wife: Dorothy Clinton; three daughters: Patricia Ann Clinton, Charlene Elizabeth Kirkwood and Robette Adele Goodwin of California; one brother: Robert Clinton, seven stepchildren eight grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
