OBITUARY

Mildred Hogan was born in Birmingham, Alabama on January 10, 1928, to the Olivia H. Henley and the late William C. Henley. She was the fifth eldest child.

She graduated from Hooper City High School and obtained an AAS degree from Booker T. Washington Business Institute.

Mildred was raised by a Christian family and accepted Christ at an early age.

She met and later married the now departed Mr. Augustus Hogan, also of Birmingham.

After moving to Buffalo in 1951, she engaged in her labor of love and was devoted to raising her six children. Later, she entered the work force which led to a position at the Norstar Bank where she was employed for 15 years.

Mildred had done volunteer work for the Internal Revenue Service, the American Cancer Society, University Heights Day Care Center, and has thereby obtained many awards and letters of appreciation. She was also a very active member of Bethel A.M.E. Church where she served on the Stewardess Board and the "Here Am I" Unit of the Missionary Society.

Mildred departed this life on Saturday, July 4, 1987. She leaves to cherish her precious memory, three daughters: Shareyfah of Michigan; Deborah and Susan, both of Buffalo; three sons: Bruce of Buffalo; Alvin and Reginald, both of Texas; seven brothers: William, Stewart, Walter, Lawrence, Warren, and Clarence, (one brother Joseph preceded her in death); three sisters: Geraldine Simpson, Anita Butcher, and Jacqueline Cobbs; 15 grandchildren, one daughter-in-law, three sons-in-law, and a host of neices, nephews, cousins, other family and friends.

I Thessalonians 4:16-18

For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

BENEDICTION

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine".

The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever patient worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.
