Obituary

Charles W. Harrington departed this life on March 16, 1989.

He was born to Walter and Ella Harrington August 16, 1894 in Lexington, Mississippi. He received his earlier education in Jackson, Mississippi and attended Campbell College. He moved to Indianapolis, Indiana and later, in the late twenties moved to Buffalo. He was married to the late Mattie Cavett and to this union one son was born. He retired from Republic Steel where he was employed all of his working life in Buffalo.

He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

He leaves to mourn, one son, Charles Harrington, Jr.; three grandchildren, Bobette, Charlene, and Rodney Harrington, and one daughter-in-law Karen. Also, two aunts, Lorean Holls of McEarly, Mississippi and Rebecca Dunn of Cleveland, Ohio.

He will be sadly missed by his many cousins and friends.

The Pallbearers are members of the Male Usher Board of Bethel A.M.E. Church.

*When sorrow comes,
As sorrow must,
All that can help us
Are time and trust—
Time, the great healer
Of grief and sorrow,
Trust in the thought
Of a brighter tomorrow.*
