OBITUARY

Willie Mae Jones was born in Athens, Georgia where she grew up and attended school. She was brought up in a Christian home and attended Sunday School regularly, which inspired her to unite with the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

She later married Benjamin Jones and moved to New York where they made Buffalo their home.

Willie Mae became a faithful member of Bethel A. M. E. Church, then located on Eagle Street. She always said, "My God and my Church are all I have". She was a member of the Daughters of Allen and sang with the Gospel Singers until she became ill. Willie Mae will always be remembered for the support she gave her Church. She had a deep spiritual concern for other people.

She leaves to mourn her departure, an aunt: Mrs. Idella Pope of Buffalo; five cousins: Mrs. Mattie Barker, her daughters: Candace Barker Green and Marilyn Barker Martin and their children, all of Buffalo, New York; Mrs. Louise B. Givann of Schenectady, New York and Mrs. Mattie B. Wilson of Great Barrington, Massachusetts; and three nieces: Lucille, Maggie and Lois, all of St. Louis, Missouri.

May she rest in everlasting peace.
